Report on “7 (Seven) Days NSS Special Camping Programme”

Event Name : “7 Days Special Camping Programme”

Date : 02nd August 2024 to 08th August 2024

Organized By : NSS Unit, Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar

Venue : 1614 No. Kakrikhola L.P. School

Participants : 1 NSS Programme Officer & 50 NSS Volunteers

Objective : The main objective of the NSS Special Camping Programme was to promote community service, discipline and leadership among NSS volunteers while contributing to the development of the adopted village. The camp aimed to create awareness on education, health, hygiene and government schemes through surveys and interactions with villagers. It also focused on improving the school environment through cleanliness drives, repairing benches and desks, wall painting and assisting in classroom teaching. In addition, the programme encouraged environmental responsibility through plantation drives and Go Green activities, while cultural exchange and group activities helped strengthen social bonding and community involvement. Overall, the camp provided experiential learning opportunities that enabled volunteers to understand rural challenges and work together for meaningful social change.

Detailed report of the event:

The seven-day NSS Special Camping Programme of Kokrajhar Government College commenced on 2nd August 2024 at the adopted village school, 1614 No. Kakrikhola LP School, amidst much enthusiasm and community participation. The inaugural session was graced by Rima Trishna Haloi, ACS, Assistant Commissioner of Kokrajhar District Administration, as the Chief Guest, who delivered an inspiring speech emphasizing the significance of youth participation in social development through NSS activities. Dr. Dimacha Dwibrang Mwchahary, Principal of Kokrajhar Government College, attended as Guest of Honour and highlighted the objective behind organizing such special camps—to instill values of service, discipline and leadership among students. The presence of village leaders, school authorities, teachers, parents and community members created a welcoming atmosphere. The volunteers added a cultural touch to the programme with a graceful Garó traditional dance, symbolizing unity and cultural richness. The first day also witnessed a Free Medical Camp, which benefitted villagers with basic health checkups and awareness on hygiene and nutrition, thereby successfully marking the beginning of the camp.

On 3rd August 2024, the camp activities gained momentum as volunteers assembled early morning for a disciplined start with NSS song, prayer and thought of the day. After breakfast, they proceeded for Shramdaan, dedicating their effort to paddy plantation, contributing to agricultural labour and thereby experiencing rural livelihood first-hand. The volunteers worked in muddy fields with dedication and teamwork, before dispersing for lunch. The same activity continued in the afternoon, showcasing their commitment. In the evening, the volunteers lined up for Drill practice, preparing themselves for the upcoming Independence Day celebration. The day ended on a spirited note with songs, informal interactions and group reflections.

The third day, 4th August 2024, began with the usual morning ritual of NSS song and tea refreshment, which prepared volunteers for another productive day. A massive cleanliness drive was undertaken in and around the school grounds, playgrounds and village pathways, resulting in the collection of around 9.8 kilograms of plastic waste. This not only contributed to environmental improvement but also raised awareness among villagers about waste disposal. After lunch, the volunteers worked actively on repairing school desks and benches, painting walls, cleaning classrooms and restoring broken furniture, making the learning environment more student-friendly. The evening session was a rejuvenating one, filled with cultural activities, talent showcasing, songs and coordination practices, which strengthened bonding among participants.

The fourth day, 5th August 2024, turned greener and more community-centered. After breakfast, volunteers engaged in a plantation drive around the school campus and playground, planting saplings and ensuring proper spacing and watering. This activity aimed to develop environmental consciousness among the community. Shortly after, upon request from villagers, they participated again in paddy plantation work, extending support to nearby households. Post lunch, a structured group discussion was held with women and youths of the village, wherein volunteers interacted about health, education, livelihood opportunities and social concerns. This was followed by drill practice and preparation for a cultural exchange session. The day closed melodiously with group singing and NSS song, creating a harmonious ambience.

On 6th August 2024, the fifth day, volunteers focused on analytical and outreach work. After the morning routine, they initiated a door-to-door socio-economic survey targeting approximately 60 households. The survey included parameters such as literacy status, access to healthcare, family income sources, sanitation facilities, women's empowerment initiatives and awareness on government schemes. The interaction with villagers offered deeper insights into local challenges, making the experience valuable for both students and faculty. After lunch, drill practice continued, followed by an engaging cultural exchange with village youth participants. The day ended as tradition demanded—with NSS song and group reflection.

The sixth day, 7th August 2024, was devoted to both ecological and educational contributions. The volunteers started with morning assembly and then undertook Go Green activities, nurturing planted saplings, clearing weeds and cleaning the school campus. Additionally, they took responsibility for teaching and assisting school students in academic subjects, motivating children to improve their learning habits. Afternoon hours were spent rehearsing choreography, songs and group presentations for the upcoming valedictory function. The disciplined drill practice continued, signifying unity and preparation. The day concluded with discussions, cultural bonding and a feeling of accomplishment.

The final day, 8th August 2024, was celebrated with excitement and emotions. After morning songs and prayer, the volunteers conducted a plantation programme at Kakrikhola G.D.M.E School, aligning with the Amrit Brikshya Andolan-2 initiative, symbolizing sustainable commitment. A brief community meeting was held thereafter, addressing local issues related to road repair, sanitation, drinking water supply, student dropout problems and women safety concerns. This was followed by the grand valedictory ceremony, which showcased cultural fusion performances by village youths and volunteers. Distinguished guests including Principal Dr. Mwchahary, Mrs. Murshida Alom (Director of Aaiman Agriculture Farmer Producer Company Ltd.), and Mr. Lipson Sangma (Vice President of All Assam Garo Sahitya Sabha) graced the occasion with encouraging remarks. Certificates were distributed, appreciation speeches were delivered and the seven-day journey culminated with NSS song and National Anthem, marking the conclusion of a camp that transformed both the volunteers and the community through service, cooperation, awareness and shared responsibility.

Event Name : “Participation at 76th Independence Day Celebration Parade”

Date : 15th August 2024

Organized By: District Administration, Kokrajhar

Venue : H.S. Field, Kokrajhar

Participants : 35 NSS Volunteers of Kokrajhar Government College

Objective: To commemorate India’s Independence Day with pride and patriotism by participating in the ceremonial parade and representing Kokrajhar Government College with discipline and honor.

Detailed report of the event:

The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College took part in the 76th Independence Day Celebration Parade held on 15th August 2024 at H.S. Field, Kokrajhar, organized by the District Administration, Kokrajhar, with active participation of 35 enthusiastic volunteers. The students assembled early in the morning, dressed in complete NSS uniforms, and underwent final briefing before joining the formal parade line-up. Their presence added vibrancy to the event, and their disciplined movements, uniform alignment, and confident march past drew positive attention from the audience as well as officials present.

The programme began with the arrival of the Chief Guest, Sjt. Pramod Boro, Hon’ble Chief Executive Member of the Bodoland Territorial Region, who hoisted the National Flag, addressed the gathering on India's achievements and aspirations, and acknowledged the presence of youth organizations. As the Chief Guest inspected the parade, the NSS contingent was appreciated for their well-coordinated movements, presentation, and disciplined conduct. The volunteers had the opportunity to engage in a large-scale civic programme, interact with other institutional contingents, and participate in a public event of national significance. Through this participation, they developed essential values such as discipline, unity, time management, and responsibility. Moreover, involvement in the Independence Day celebration helped strengthen patriotic feelings and encouraged leadership qualities amongst the participants.

Representing Kokrajhar Government College in a district-level programme enhanced the institutional identity and showcased the dedication of the NSS unit toward socially relevant activities. Overall, the participation created a memorable experience for the volunteers, reinforcing their commitment to NSS principles of “Not Me But You,” while contributing meaningfully to national celebrations and promoting a sense of pride, dignity, and national integrity.

Event	: “Shramdan” at Mental Health Camp at the ANT Campus, Roumari, Chapaguri
Date	:25th August 2024
Venue	: ANT Campus, RoumariChapaguri
Number of Volunteers	: 12
Organized by	:The ANT, Chirang

Detailed Report of the event:

The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College actively participated in the Shramdan activities on 25th August 2024 during the Mental Health Camp held at ANT Campus, Roumari Chapaguri, organized by the ANT, Chirang. A group of 12 NSS volunteers participated in the initiative, their support to multiple service components associated with the Mental Illness Treatment Alliance. The volunteers played an important role in assisting medical professionals, guiding patients, and ensuring the smooth functioning of core activities at the camp.

The Shramdan activities involved assisting medical staff in patient registration, distributing forms, organizing files, and directing individuals to counseling sessions and diagnosis areas. Volunteers supported patients by escorting them to designated sections, arranging seating for elderly beneficiaries, and ensuring that individuals with psychological concerns received patient-friendly guidance. A help desk was managed by the volunteers where queries were addressed, visitor information was recorded, and individuals were informed about the sequence of consultation procedures. They also participated in distributing awareness materials related to stress management, mental illness symptoms, treatment facilities, and psychological well-being.

In addition to operational support, volunteers ensured cleanliness and proper arrangement within working areas, counselling rooms, and waiting zones to create a comfortable environment for both patients and health workers. Their involvement fostered coordination between camp organizers and participants, thereby reducing confusion, improving waiting time management, and enhancing the accessibility of available services.

Through this Shramdan activity, the volunteers gained firsthand exposure to mental health service delivery, strengthened interpersonal communication skills, and developed empathy while interacting with mentally distressed individuals and their families. The initiative highlighted the relevance of youth participation in community-based mental health programmes and contributed greatly to the camp’s success. The participation of NSS

- Event : An "Intensified IEC Campaign," an awareness program on HIV/AIDS and Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs).
- Date : 29th August, 2024.
- Venue : Seminar Hall, Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar.
- Objective : The "Intensified IEC Campaign" aimed to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS and STIs among students by promoting knowledge, encouraging preventive practices, reducing stigma, and fostering community engagement. It also sought to highlight the importance of early detection, regular testing, and access to treatment and counseling services, empowering students to protect themselves and support others in their community.
- Outcome : The "Intensified IEC Campaign" successfully raised awareness about HIV/AIDS and STIs among over 250 students and teachers encouraging active participation through interactive activities and reducing stigma associated with these infections. The program fostered open discussions on sexual health and strengthened community ties, amplifying the impact of HIV/AIDS education and awareness beyond the college.

Detailed Report of the Event:

On August 29, 2024, Kokrajhar Govt. College hosted an "Intensified IEC Campaign," an awareness program on HIV/AIDS and Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs). The event was organized by the Red Ribbon Club (RRC) of Kokrajhar Govt. College in collaboration with the District AIDS Control Office, Kokrajhar, and supported by the Assam State AIDS Control Society. The campaign aimed to educate and raise awareness among students about the prevention, transmission, and treatment of HIV/AIDS and STIs.

The event saw the participation of around 250 students, teachers and members of the Red Ribbon Club. Mr. Danswring Basumatary, Coordinator of the Red Ribbon Club at Kokrajhar Govt. College, warmly welcomed the gathering. Dr. Shibu Basak, Vice Principal of Kokrajhar Govt. College, inaugurated the program with a speech that emphasized the importance of awareness and education in combating the spread of HIV/AIDS and other STIs. The inaugural session set a thoughtful tone for the day's activities, encouraging active participation from the attendees.

Following the opening remarks, Mrs. Mamuni Bashiya, Counselor of the PPTCT (Prevention of Parent to Child Transmission) program in Kokrajhar, and Miss Hirimba Narzary, Counselor of Care India TI (Targeted Intervention) in Kokrajhar, delivered insightful lectures on HIV/AIDS awareness. They covered various aspects, including transmission modes, preventive measures, the importance of regular testing, and available treatment options. Their lectures were monitored by Miss Swdwmsmshri Narzary, Project

Programme Officer
National Service Scheme (NSS)

Report on “Webinar on World Suicide Prevention Day”

Event Name : Webinar on World Suicide Prevention Day

Date : 11th September 2024

Organized By : GHS, Ministry of Health and family Welfare, GOI

Venue : Seminar Hall, Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar

Participants : 30 NSS Volunteers

Objective: To raise awareness about mental health and suicide prevention, and to provide valuable insights into coping mechanisms, available resources, and the importance of social support in mental well-being.

Details of Activities:

The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College actively participated in a webinar organized by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India through GHS, in observance of World Suicide Prevention Day. The event was streamed live in the Seminar Hall of the college and was attended by 30 NSS volunteers. The primary objective of the programme was to raise awareness on mental health issues, identify signs of suicidal tendencies, and empower volunteers with preventive knowledge and supportive skills.

The webinar began with an introductory session on the significance of World Suicide Prevention Day, emphasizing the need to understand mental health challenges faced by individuals in today's fast-paced and stressful environment. Eminent mental health experts and clinical professionals delivered presentations focusing on early warning signs related to suicidal risks such as withdrawal from social interactions, emotional instability, drastic behavioral changes, feelings of hopelessness, and extended periods of stress and anxiety. Through case-based discussions, the speakers detailed how timely intervention and empathetic communication can help individuals in distress seek support.

The session also highlighted psychological methods and coping mechanisms that could be used both individually and within peer groups. Resource persons underscored that strategies like active listening, emotional validation, stress reduction practices, and timely counselling play a crucial role in preventing suicide. Discussion was further extended to the availability of helpline services, counseling centres, and government-supported mental health platforms, encouraging volunteers to disseminate the information within their communities.

A dedicated interactive session formed an important part of the programme, during which students posed relevant questions pertaining to confidentiality in counselling, preventive actions to support distressed peers, and responsibilities youth should take to break stigma around mental illness. The experts responded with practical guidance and recommendations, emphasizing the collective responsibility of the community in ensuring emotional safety for vulnerable individuals.

This session proved to be insightful for the volunteers as they gained clarity about their role in mental health advocacy. At the end of the webinar, volunteers shared reflections, acknowledging that the knowledge gained would help them provide peer support, conduct awareness activities, and encourage open discussions on mental wellbeing. The programme concluded with the volunteers committing to disseminate mental health awareness within the college environment and extending help to individuals in need.

The webinar helped strengthen students' attitude towards emotional sensitivity, responsibility, and community well-being. The participation of NSS volunteers demonstrated their commitment towards social causes and contributed significantly to the larger goal of creating an informed, supportive, and suicide-preventive campus atmosphere.

Report on NSS Day cum Orientation Programme

Event Name : NSS Day Celebration Cum Orientation Day

Date : 24th September 2024

Organized By : NSS Unit, Kokrajhar Govt. College

Venue : Seminar Hall, Kokrajhar Govt. College

Participants : 70 NSS Volunteers

Objective : To celebrate NSS Day, acknowledge the contributions of NSS volunteers, and orient new volunteers about the goals, values, and activities of the NSS unit.

Details of Activities:

The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College celebrated NSS Day with great enthusiasm on Tuesday by also organizing an Orientation Programme for newly enrolled volunteers. The programme was held in the college seminar hall and witnessed the active participation of around 70 NSS volunteers.

The event commenced with a formal inaugural ceremony, which included the lighting of the lamp followed by a welcome address by the NSS Programme Officer. In his speech, the Programme Officer highlighted the importance of National Service Scheme as an avenue for youth empowerment and social responsibility. He encouraged students to dedicate their time to meaningful community service and reminded them of the legacy of NSS since its establishment in 1969.

A special speech was delivered by a senior faculty member of the college, who threw light on the motto of NSS—Not Me, But You. The speaker elaborated on the values of selfless service, leadership, discipline, and civic responsibility that NSS inculcates among students. Emphasizing the contributions of NSS volunteers in past social initiatives such as health awareness, cleanliness drives, blood donation camps, and rural outreach programmes, the speaker urged students to use NSS as a platform for holistic personality development.

A key highlight of the programme was the Orientation Session designed for new volunteers. During this session, the basic history, objectives and functioning of NSS were explained in detail. Volunteers were briefed about the activities planned for the academic session, including community outreach, campus cleanliness campaigns, health awareness programmes, social welfare initiatives, and environmental conservation drives. They were also reminded of the roles and responsibilities expected from an NSS volunteer, with emphasis on discipline, teamwork, punctuality and participation in social activities.

An interactive session followed where senior volunteers shared their experiences and learning outcomes from their previous years of service. They spoke about how involvement in NSS helped them gain confidence, improve communication skills, develop leadership qualities and contribute meaningfully to society. The interaction helped motivate the new entrants and provided them an idea of the impact and importance of NSS activities.

To mark the celebration of NSS Day, a short cultural programme was presented by the volunteers. Students performed songs and short skits reflecting themes of social unity, environmental awareness and service to humanity. The programme brought out the spirit of volunteerism and created an inspiring atmosphere among the audience.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by the student volunteer representative. The programme successfully fostered a sense of belonging and enthusiasm among volunteers, marking the beginning of yet another year of impactful activities by the NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College.

With new volunteers joining hands, the unit aims to undertake innovative projects for community welfare and continue contributing to society in a meaningful manner. The celebration and orientation programme stood as a reminder of the importance of youth engagement in nation building through service-oriented activities.

Report on “Swachhata Hi Seva Campaign 2024”

Event : Swachhata Hi Seva Campaign

Date : 25th September – 02nd October 2024.

Objective : The primary objective of the Swachhata Hi Seva campaign was to involve the community, students, and volunteers in cleanliness activities aimed at promoting waste management and sanitation across various locations. The campaign emphasized waste segregation, the reduction of plastic waste, and the importance of maintaining a clean environment.

Detailed Report:

A week-long “Swachhata Hi Seva Campaign 2025” concluded on Wednesday with enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers of Kokrajhar Government College, marking a remarkable contribution towards community cleanliness and awareness generation. The campaign, held from September 25 to October 2, covered multiple public locations including the college campus, railway station, hospital premises, local market areas and residential zones.

Over 280 volunteers took part in the initiative, conducting cleanliness drives and awareness programmes aimed at promoting waste segregation, reduction of plastic usage, and proper disposal of solid waste. The campaign began at the college campus where volunteers removed accumulated litter, collecting 37 kg of disposable waste and 5.3 kg of plastic waste. The drive not only helped beautify the campus but also encouraged students to maintain cleanliness in shared spaces.

The railway station area witnessed significant improvement on the second day, with volunteers collecting nearly 45 kg of waste. Passengers and railway staff appreciated the effort, and several were sensitised towards responsible waste disposal. A similar drive was organised at RNB Hospital where volunteers cleaned open spaces and removed 39 kg of waste, ensuring cleaner surroundings for patients and attendants.

One of the major activities was conducted at the Daily Market on September 28. In a zone known for heavy waste generation, volunteers collected over 56 kg of waste. Shopkeepers supported the effort and were oriented about waste segregation. Cleanliness activities continued at Baganshali area, with residents joining the campaign and learning about sustainable waste practices.

The college campus was revisited for a second cleaning drive on October 1, demonstrating continuity of the mission. The final day was dedicated to cleaning the Boys’ Hostel, where volunteers removed discarded food packets, plastic bottles and paper waste from the surroundings.

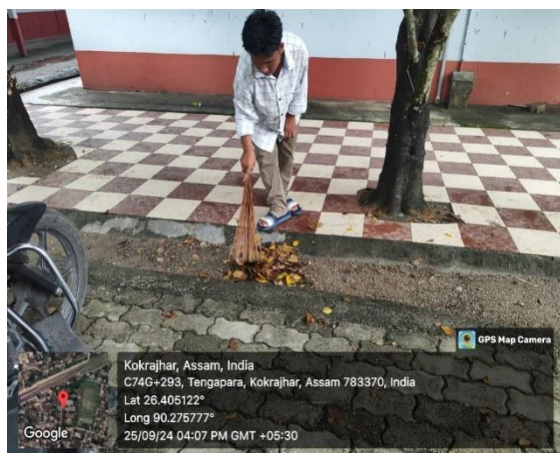

Programme Officer
National Service Scheme (NSS)

In total, 281 kg of disposable waste and 40.2 kg of plastic waste were collected during the campaign. Volunteers also conducted brief awareness sessions at each location, urging citizens to reduce single-use plastics and contribute to maintaining clean neighbourhoods.

The initiative concluded with a renewed call for environmental responsibility. NSS volunteers expressed satisfaction at having contributed to a meaningful cause, while faculty members appreciated the commitment and discipline shown throughout the campaign. The week-long effort highlighted the role of youth in strengthening the national movement for cleanliness and sustainability.

Report on Participation in Mental Health Camp at ANT Campus, RoumariChapaguri

Date: 29th September 2024

Venue: ANT Campus, RoumariChapaguri

Number of Volunteers: 12

Organized by: The ANT, Chirang

On 29th September 2024, a team of twelve NSS volunteers from Kokrajhar Government College participated in a Mental Health Camp held at ANT Campus, Roumari Chapaguri. The programme was organized by The ANT, Chirang, with an aim to address pressing mental health issues, extend professional counseling support, and promote emotional well-being among individuals from nearby communities.

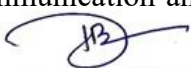

One of the major responsibilities undertaken by the volunteers was the systematic registration of patients. They efficiently handled the registration desk, assisted participants in filling out their forms, guided them to appropriate counters and made sure that the flow of attendees remained smooth throughout the day. Their active involvement in crowd guidance significantly reduced waiting time and ensured that individuals could receive timely support.

Volunteers played an important support role during the counseling sessions conducted by mental health professionals. They assisted in organizing individual and group consultation spaces, maintaining privacy and comfort for participants. By providing logistical support and establishing a friendly environment, volunteers helped individuals feel at ease, encouraging them to openly discuss their emotional and psychological difficulties.

Another notable contribution was their involvement in awareness generation. Volunteers distributed informational leaflets on topics such as depression, anxiety, stress management techniques, and ways to seek help. They took part in interactive discussions, spreading an encouraging message about mental health care and reminding individuals that reaching out for help is essential and not a sign of weakness.

The impact of the camp was clearly visible as participants expressed satisfaction and relief after receiving counseling services. The camp allowed many individuals to connect with professional counselors for the first time, making it a crucial initiative for mental health support in the region. The presence of dedicated volunteers contributed significantly to ensuring smooth coordination, accessibility of services, and meaningful engagement with participants.

In conclusion, the Mental Health Camp at ANT Campus on 29th September 2024 proved to be a valuable community outreach programme. The active involvement of twelve NSS volunteers from Kokrajhar Government College not only strengthened the organization of the event but also demonstrated their commitment to social responsibility. The initiative provided volunteers with deeper insight into mental health issues, enhanced their communication and

& Department of Higher Education, Govt. of Haryana

Venue : Guru Jambheshwar University of Science & Technology, Haryana

Participants : 1 NSS PO and 8 NSS Volunteers.

Objective : The primary objective of participating in the National Integration Camp (NIC) 2024 was to promote national integration, cultural understanding, leadership, and social responsibility among youth volunteers. The camp aimed to provide participants with opportunities for teamwork, community service, and exposure to India's diverse cultural heritage, while enhancing their personality, discipline, and commitment to nation-building.

Detailed Report:

The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar proudly presents this detailed report on its participation in the National Integration Camp (NIC) 2024, held from 11th – 17th October 2024 at Guru Jambheshwar University of Science & Technology (GJUST), Hisar, Haryana. Organized by the NSS Cell of GJUST in collaboration with the Department of Higher Education, Govt. of Haryana, the camp brought together enthusiastic youth volunteers from across India to promote national integration, cultural understanding, leadership, and social responsibility. This camp provided a prestigious platform for the volunteers to enhance their skills, experience cultural diversity, and actively engage in nation-building activities.

The primary objective of the NIC was to foster national unity, leadership, discipline, teamwork, community service, and cultural exchange among young volunteers. Participants were encouraged to sensitize themselves to social challenges, develop problem-solving and leadership abilities, and strengthen their sense of civic and social responsibility. Through a combination of workshops, outdoor activities, cultural programs, and community engagement, the camp aimed to shape well-rounded, socially conscious, and responsible youth leaders.

During the seven-day programme, the NSS team from Kokrajhar Govt. College, including 1 NSS Programme Officer and 8 volunteers, actively participated in a variety of educational and motivational sessions conducted by senior NSS officials, academicians, and eminent personalities. The sessions addressed topics such as national integration, youth leadership, disaster management, environmental conservation, community development, and social service initiatives. These sessions not only enhanced the knowledge and understanding of the participants but also inspired them to take active initiatives for the welfare of their communities.

A key highlight of the camp was the cultural exchange programme, which provided volunteers with the opportunity to showcase the rich heritage, music, dance, and art forms of their respective states. Volunteers from Kokrajhar Govt. College represented Assam and the Bodo community with pride, performing traditional cultural presentations and actively engaging with participants from other states. This exchange promoted mutual respect, appreciation of diversity, and national integration, allowing participants to experience the spirit of “Unity in Diversity” firsthand.

The NIC also included extensive community service and social engagement activities, such as cleanliness drives, tree plantation programmes, awareness campaigns, and local outreach initiatives. These practical activities reinforced the NSS motto—Not Me, But You—by allowing volunteers to actively serve society, collaborate as a team, and take responsibility for community welfare. Daily physical fitness routines, outdoor exercises, and team-building activities further strengthened leadership, discipline, resilience, and interpersonal skills among participants.

An exciting and memorable component of the camp was the tour to the land of Mahabharata, which offered volunteers a rare opportunity to explore historical and mythological sites associated with the great Indian epic. The visit provided a deep cultural and historical perspective, enriching the participants’ understanding of India’s ancient heritage, values, and traditions. This experience was not only educational but also inspirational, fostering a sense of pride in India’s rich cultural legacy.

The participation of the NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Govt. College in the NIC 2024 was marked by outstanding dedication, discipline, and achievement. Notably, Sri Milton Brahma brought laurel to the college by being awarded the “Best Volunteer” of the camp, a recognition of his exemplary performance, leadership, commitment to service, and active participation in all camp activities. His achievement was widely appreciated by organizers, fellow participants, and NSS officials, bringing immense pride to the college and serving as an inspiration for other volunteers.

In conclusion, the National Integration Camp 2024 at GJUST was a transformative and enriching experience for the NSS volunteers of Kokrajhar Govt. College. It enhanced their cultural awareness, leadership skills, social responsibility, teamwork, and national pride. The recognition of Sri Milton Brahma as Best Volunteer underscores the excellence and dedication of the team. The NSS Unit congratulates all participants for their active engagement, exemplary conduct, and successful representation of Assam, and reaffirms its commitment to nurturing responsible, patriotic, and service-oriented youth leaders.

Report on Participation in Mental Health Camp at ANT Campus, Roumari Chapaguri

Date : 27th October 2024

Venue : ANT Campus, Roumari, Chaphaguri

Number of Volunteers : 13

Organized by : The ANT, Chirang

Objective of the Camp : The Mental Health Camp aimed to address pressing mental health concerns, spread awareness, and provide professional counseling services to participants. The primary objectives included:

- Offering professional counseling and emotional support to individuals facing mental health challenges.
- Raising awareness about mental health, stress management, and emotional resilience.
- Promoting open conversations around mental health to reduce stigma and misconceptions.

Detailed Report:

On 27th October 2024, 13 (Thirteen) NSS volunteers from Kokrajhar Government College participated in a Mental Health Camp organized by MITA at ANT Campus, Roumari, Chaphaguri. The camp was designed to address mental health concerns within the community, provide professional counseling, and promote awareness about emotional well-being and stress management. The initiative aimed to create a supportive environment where participants could openly discuss mental health issues and receive guidance from trained professionals.

During the camp, volunteers played an essential role in facilitating smooth operations. They assisted in managing the registration process, guiding participants to counseling areas, and maintaining overall organization throughout the event. Their presence helped ensure that all attendees felt welcomed and comfortable, allowing counselors to conduct both individual and group sessions efficiently. Volunteers also contributed to spreading awareness by distributing informational materials and engaging participants in discussions about mental health practices and coping strategies.

The camp had a notable impact on both the community and the volunteers. Participants were able to access professional counseling, gain insights into stress management, and learn techniques to maintain emotional resilience. The active engagement of volunteers ensured seamless execution of the camp, fostered a positive atmosphere, and encouraged open dialogue around mental health, thereby helping reduce stigma and misconceptions associated with mental illnesses.

Venue : M.M. Brahma Hall, Kokrajhar Govt. College

Participants : Teachers, Students and NSS volunteers

Objective : To celebrate Rashtriya Ekta Divas (National Unity Day) and promote the message of unity, integrity, and national solidarity among students. The day commemorates the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the Iron Man of India, who played a pivotal role in the integration of India.

Detailed Report:

On 31st October 2024, the NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College successfully organized the celebration of Rashtriya Ekta Divas (National Unity Day) at M.M. Brahma Hall. The event saw the active participation of 97 students, including NSS volunteers, and aimed to promote the values of unity, integrity, and national solidarity among the student community. Rashtriya Ekta Divas is observed annually to commemorate the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the Iron Man of India, who played a pivotal role in integrating the nation post-independence.

The programme commenced with the Rashtriya Ekta Divas Pledge, administered collectively by all participants. The pledge was recited in four different languages to reflect India's cultural diversity, reinforcing the participants' commitment to protect and preserve the unity, integrity, and security of the nation. The pledge-taking ceremony was led by NSS volunteers, highlighting their active role in promoting national values among their peers.

Following the pledge, a speech on the importance of unity was delivered by a senior faculty member. The speech emphasized Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's monumental contributions to the unification of India and stressed the responsibility of every citizen to uphold the principles of integrity and national cohesion. The speaker also elaborated on the contemporary relevance of unity in a diverse, multicultural society, encouraging students to foster mutual respect, understanding, and harmony in their daily lives.

Organized By : NSS Unit, Kokrajhar Government College

Venue : Seminar Hall, Kokrajhar Government College

Participants : 101 students, including NSS volunteers

Lead by : Rahabi Hazowary, Ambassador of "My Bharat"

Objective : To introduce students to the "My Bharat Portal," a digital platform designed to engage youth in nation-building activities, and to encourage active participation in various programs and initiatives offered through the portal.

Detailed report:

On 2nd November 2024, the NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College organized an Outreach Programme on "My Bharat Portal" in the college Seminar Hall. The event was attended by 101 students, including NSS volunteers, and was led by Rahabi Hazowary, Ambassador of "My Bharat." The primary objective of the programme was to introduce students to the digital platform "My Bharat," designed to engage youth in nation-building initiatives, skill development, and volunteering opportunities, while motivating them to actively participate in various social and developmental activities.

The programme commenced with a welcome address by the NSS Program Officer, who highlighted the significance of the "My Bharat Portal" in empowering students to contribute to national development. The Program Officer also expressed gratitude to Rahabi Hazowary for her presence and guidance, setting a positive and motivational tone for the session.

Following the inauguration, Rahabi Hazowary provided a detailed introduction to the portal, explaining its objectives, key features, and benefits for students. She elaborated on the registration process, volunteering opportunities, skill development programs, and the platform's ability to connect students with like-minded youth and professionals. Students were encouraged to actively explore these opportunities to enhance their skills and contribute to society.

A live demonstration of the portal was conducted to familiarize students with its interface and functionalities. Rahabi Hazowary guided participants through the process of creating profiles, browsing ongoing projects, and enrolling in initiatives. The demonstration allowed students to gain hands-on understanding of how to navigate and make the most of the platform.

Participation in the North East Zone Pre–Republic Day Parade Camp 2024

Event Name : Participation in the North East Zone Pre–Republic Day Parade Camp 2024

Date : 07th – 16th November 2024

Organized By: Regional Directorate of NSS, Guwahati and Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Govt. of India in collaboration with NSS Cell, Gauhati University

Venue : Gauhati University

Participants : 2 NSS Volunteers

Objective : The primary objective of participating in the North East Zone Pre–Republic Day Parade Camp 2024 was to provide NSS volunteers with an opportunity to undergo advanced parade training, develop leadership qualities, and foster a sense of discipline, patriotism, and national integration. The camp aimed to promote cultural exchange among volunteers from different North Eastern states while preparing them for possible selection to the prestigious Republic Day Parade in New Delhi. Through structured physical training, educational sessions, and interactive activities, the programme sought to enhance the overall personality, confidence, and social responsibility of the participating volunteers.

Detailed report:

The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar is pleased to present a detailed activity report on the participation of its volunteers in the North East Zone Pre–Republic Day (Pre–RD) Parade Camp 2024. The camp, held at Gauhati University, Guwahati, from 7 November 2024 to 16 November 2024, brought together NSS volunteers from different states of the North Eastern region. Its objective was to instill discipline, leadership, patriotism, and national integration among young volunteers while preparing them for the prestigious Republic Day Parade. Two volunteers represented Kokrajhar Govt. College in this camp, reflecting the college’s commitment to active youth participation and national service.

Participants from NSS Unit, Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar

Sl. No.	Name of Participant	Class	Gender	Designation
1	Sri Milton Brahma	B.Sc Semester VI	Male	NSS Volunteer
2	Miss Sonali Brahma	B.A Semester VI	Female	NSS Volunteer

Throughout the ten-day camp, the volunteers participated in a wide range of structured activities designed to develop physical fitness, mental discipline, and leadership qualities. Each day began with an early morning routine consisting of physical training and yoga sessions, which helped the volunteers enhance their stamina, flexibility, and concentration. This was followed by intensive drill and parade practice under the guidance of experienced instructors. The volunteers were trained in marching techniques, synchronized movements, and command responses—skills essential for national-level parade participation. Their dedication, punctuality, and steady improvement were notable throughout the camp.

In addition to parade training, the volunteers were exposed to enriching seminars, lectures, and interactive workshops. Resource persons delivered insightful talks on national integration, personality development, leadership qualities, disaster preparedness, community service, and youth empowerment. These sessions broadened the volunteers' understanding of the role of NSS in nation-building and encouraged critical thinking on social issues. Both Milton Brahma and Sonali Brahma actively participated in group discussions and learning activities, demonstrating enthusiasm, leadership, and a strong willingness to learn.

A key highlight of the camp was the vibrant cultural exchange programmes, where volunteers from across the North Eastern states showcased traditional dances, music, costumes, and art forms. This platform helped promote unity in diversity and strengthened cultural understanding among participants. The volunteers from Kokrajhar Govt. College proudly represented the rich cultural heritage of Assam and the Bodo community. Their involvement contributed to the cultural vibrancy of the event and fostered mutual respect and friendship among volunteers from different states.

The camp also included team-building activities, exposure visits, and interactive sessions with dignitaries, all of which enriched the overall learning experience. The volunteers from Kokrajhar Govt. College were appreciated for their discipline, cooperation, and active engagement in all camp activities. Their positive attitude, teamwork, and exemplary conduct demonstrated the core values of NSS—Not Me, But You—and strengthened their bond with fellow participants.

Overall, the participation of Sri Milton Brahma and Miss Sonali Brahma in the North East Zone Pre-RD Parade Camp 2024 was highly enriching and successful. They returned with enhanced leadership skills, greater confidence, and a deeper appreciation of national unity and volunteerism. Their commendable performance has brought pride to the NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Govt. College and is expected to inspire other volunteers to take part in future national-level programmes.

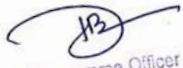

The NSS Unit acknowledges and congratulates both volunteers for their dedication, discipline, and outstanding representation of the institution at this esteemed camp. Their participation has reinforced the unit's commitment to nurturing responsible, service-oriented, and patriotic youth leaders.

Report on observation of World AIDS Day 2024

Venue : Seminar Hall, Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar

Organized by : Anti-Drugs Cell, Kokrajhar Govt. College

In Collaboration with: Red Ribbon Club, Kokrajhar Govt. College

Participants : 75 NSS Volunteers

Objective : To raise awareness about HIV/AIDS, its prevention, and the importance of solidarity and support for individuals living with HIV. The event aimed to educate students about the role they can play in combating the stigma surrounding HIV/AIDS and promoting a drug-free lifestyle.

Detailed Report:

On 1st December 2024, Kokrajhar Government College observed World AIDS Day 2024 at the Seminar Hall, organized by the NSS Unit in collaboration with the Red Ribbon Club. The event witnessed the participation of 75 students and aimed to raise awareness about HIV/AIDS, its prevention, and the importance of solidarity and support for affected individuals. The programme also emphasized the role of youth in combating stigma, promoting empathy, and leading a drug-free lifestyle.

The event commenced at 10:00 AM with an inaugural address by Dr. Dimacha D. Mwchahary, Principal of Kokrajhar Government College. In his welcome speech, he highlighted the significance of World AIDS Day, underlined the importance of awareness campaigns, and reaffirmed the college's commitment to social causes, particularly HIV prevention and drug awareness initiatives.

Following the inauguration, Dr. Daizy Brahma, Assistant Professor, Department of ENT, Kokrajhar Medical College & Hospital, delivered an informative session on the medical aspects of HIV/AIDS. She discussed modes of transmission, preventive measures, and available treatments. Additionally, she addressed the societal implications of HIV/AIDS and highlighted strategies to combat stigma and discrimination against affected individuals.

The programme featured awareness activities including a PowerPoint presentation titled "HIV/AIDS: Myths and Facts" prepared by the Red Ribbon Club, and the screening of a short documentary illustrating both global and local impacts of HIV/AIDS. These activities helped the participants understand the disease comprehensively and debunk common misconceptions.

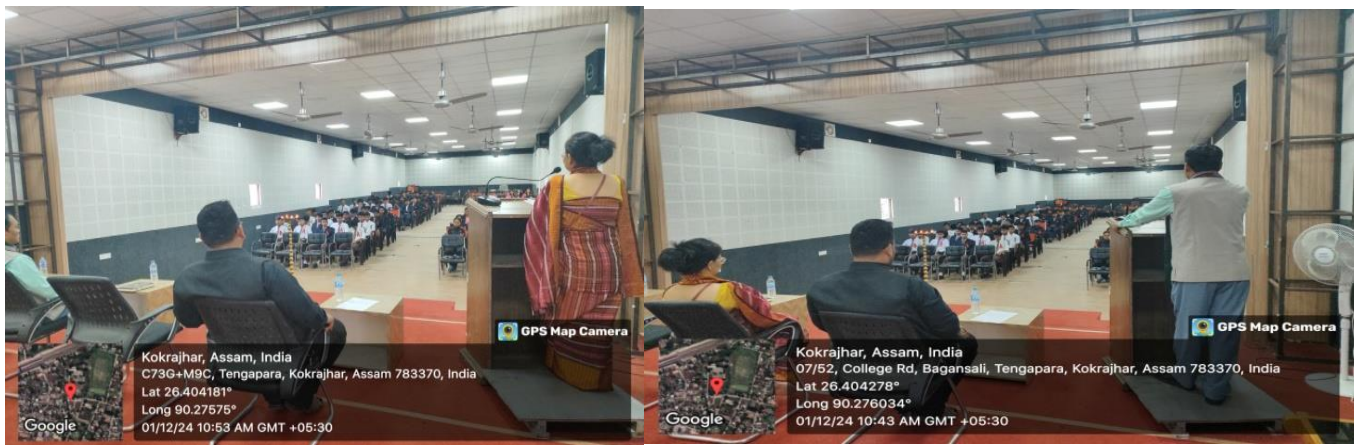

Programme Officer

A pledge ceremony was conducted, where all participants collectively pledged to raise awareness, fight stigma, and lead a drug-free life. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the Coordinator of the Anti-Drugs Cell, expressing gratitude to the speakers, collaborators, and students for their active engagement in the program.

The outcomes of the event were significant. Students gained enhanced knowledge about HIV/AIDS prevention, developed empathy towards affected individuals, and were encouraged to act as peer educators within their communities. The collaboration between the Anti-Drugs Cell, Red Ribbon Club, and NSS Unit strengthened the college's efforts in promoting health awareness and social responsibility.

In conclusion, the World AIDS Day 2024 program was a successful initiative that fostered a culture of awareness, empathy, and proactive engagement among students. The event not only educated participants on medical and social aspects of HIV/AIDS but also motivated them to contribute actively to awareness campaigns, ensuring the continuation of such impactful social initiatives in the future.

Overview : On the occasion of the 4th Anniversary of the Bodoland Territorial Region (BTR) Government, Kokrajhar Govt. College NSS Unit organized a cleanliness drive (Saafai Abhijan) and a seminar titled "My Bodoland - Peace Bodoland" on 14th December 2024. The program aimed to promote cleanliness, environmental awareness, and the vision of a peaceful and progressive Bodoland.

Participation:

- NSS Volunteers: 100
- Students: 57

Detailed Report:

On 14th December 2024, Kokrajhar Govt. College's NSS Unit organized a dual event consisting of a cleanliness drive (Saafai Abhijan) and a seminar titled “My Bodoland - Peace Bodoland” to commemorate the 4th Anniversary of the Bodoland Territorial Region (BTR) Government. The event aimed to instill a sense of civic responsibility, promote environmental hygiene, and reinforce the vision of peace, progress, and development in Bodoland. The program witnessed enthusiastic participation from 100 NSS volunteers and 57 students, reflecting the active involvement of youth in community service and regional development initiatives.

The day's activities began at 8:00 AM with the Saafai Abhijan (Cleanliness Drive), which took place across the college campus. Volunteers and students actively engaged in cleaning classrooms, corridors, playgrounds, and garden areas. Awareness slogans and banners emphasizing the importance of cleanliness and hygiene were prominently displayed throughout the campus. Participants were divided into groups to cover different areas efficiently, ensuring a coordinated and systematic cleaning effort. The drive not only improved the campus environment but also highlighted the significance of personal and collective responsibility in maintaining cleanliness and a healthy ecosystem.

Following the cleanliness drive, a seminar on “My Bodoland - Peace Bodoland” was conducted at 11:00 AM in the college auditorium. The seminar was led by Dr. Bimal Kanti

Basumatary, who delivered an insightful address on the achievements, ongoing initiatives, and future vision of the BTR Government. Eminent speakers emphasized the role of education, youth engagement, and peace in shaping a prosperous Bodoland. The session provided participants with a deeper understanding of regional governance, social cohesion, and the opportunities available for youth to contribute to community development. Interactive discussions encouraged students to reflect on their responsibilities as active citizens and agents of change in building a harmonious and progressive society.

The impact and outcomes of the event were multifaceted. Participants developed a greater awareness of environmental hygiene and the importance of cleanliness in public spaces. The seminar reinforced the significance of youth participation in regional development, inspiring students to contribute to the welfare and progress of Bodoland. The combination of practical service through the cleanliness drive and intellectual engagement through the seminar ensured a holistic learning experience for the volunteers and students.

In conclusion, the program was a resounding success, achieving its dual objectives of promoting environmental cleanliness and fostering civic consciousness. The active involvement of NSS volunteers and students not only enhanced the aesthetic and hygienic conditions of the college campus but also strengthened their understanding of peace, development, and responsible citizenship in Bodoland. The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College remains committed to organizing such meaningful initiatives that integrate community service, education, and regional awareness, continuing to motivate youth towards active participation in societal development.

Participation in the Republic Day Parade Camp 2025

Event Name : Participation in the Republic Day Parade Camp 2025

Date : 01st – 31st January 2025

Organized By: Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Govt. of India.

Venue : Kartavya Path, New Delhi

Participants : 1 NSS Volunteers

Objective : The primary objective of participating in the Republic Day Parade Camp 2025 was to provide NSS volunteers with a national platform to develop discipline, leadership, and patriotism while gaining exposure to advanced parade training. The camp aimed to promote unity, cultural exchange, and national integration among youth from across India, while preparing selected volunteers to represent their state and the NSS in the prestigious Republic Day Parade at Kartavya Path, New Delhi. It also sought to enhance the overall personality, confidence, and social responsibility of the participants through structured training, educational sessions, and interactive activities.

Detailed report:

The Republic Day Parade Camp 2025, organized by the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Govt. of India, is one of the most prestigious and competitive national-level programmes for NSS volunteers. It serves as a platform for promoting discipline, leadership, patriotism, and national integration among youth. From Kokrajhar Govt. College, Sri Milton Brahma was selected to participate after successfully clearing rigorous selection procedures at the college, district, state, and pre-Republic Day Parade levels. His selection is a reflection of his dedication, discipline, and outstanding contribution to the NSS movement.

The month-long camp commenced on 1st January 2025 in New Delhi, where volunteers from all states and Union Territories were received and oriented. The first week involved detailed briefings about the objectives of the camp, code of conduct, schedule of training, and ceremonial responsibilities. Volunteers were introduced to the values of teamwork, leadership, national service, and punctuality—qualities essential for representing their state and the NSS at the national stage. The camp environment was charged with patriotic fervor, camaraderie, and a spirit of service, motivating each participant to strive for excellence.

The core of the camp was intensive parade and drill training, conducted under the guidance of highly experienced instructors from the armed forces and NSS officials. Sri Milton Brahma participated in long hours of synchronized marching, saluting techniques, ceremonial movements, and rehearsal drills required for the Republic Day Parade at Kartavya Path. The training schedule was rigorous, starting early in the morning and continuing until late evening, demanding precision, stamina, and discipline. His dedication, punctuality, and commitment were commendable and earned him appreciation from instructors and officials alike.

In addition to parade training, the camp emphasized physical fitness, yoga, and mental conditioning, with daily sessions designed to enhance endurance, concentration, and flexibility. These exercises prepared the volunteers physically and mentally for the demanding schedule of the camp. Sri Milton Brahma actively participated in every session, demonstrating perseverance, resilience, and determination.

The camp also featured educational workshops, motivational lectures, and leadership sessions delivered by senior NSS officials, defence personnel, and eminent personalities. Volunteers were exposed to topics such as national integration, youth leadership, disaster management, community service, and nation-building. These sessions broadened their understanding of social responsibility and inspired them to serve society with dedication. Sri Milton Brahma actively engaged in discussions, group activities, and interactive sessions, further enhancing his leadership and interpersonal skills.

An enriching aspect of the camp was the cultural exchange programme, where participants from different states showcased their traditional dances, music, art, and heritage. Sri Milton Brahma represented Assam and the Bodo community with pride, actively participating in cultural presentations and exchanges. This experience promoted unity in diversity, mutual respect, and lifelong friendships among volunteers.

The highlight of the camp was the Republic Day Parade on 26th January 2025 at Kartavya Path, New Delhi. Sri Milton Brahma had the honour of marching alongside contingents of the Armed Forces, NCC, school students, and cultural groups, representing Assam and the North Eastern Region with pride and discipline. The event was witnessed by dignitaries, thousands of spectators, and millions of viewers across the nation, making it a historic and memorable experience for him.

During the camp, volunteers were also privileged to interact with the Hon'ble President, the Hon'ble Vice President, and the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India. These interactions provided invaluable inspiration and reinforced the ideals of national service, patriotism, and leadership. Sri Milton Brahma gained unique insights from these leaders, motivating him to further strengthen his commitment to social service and youth development.

Upon returning to Assam, Sri Milton Brahma was accorded special recognition for his remarkable achievement. He had the opportunity to meet and interact with the Hon'ble Governor of Assam and senior NSS officials of the state, who lauded his exemplary discipline, dedication, and performance at the national level. These interactions highlighted the significance of his achievement and served as a source of inspiration for other volunteers of Kokrajhar Govt. College.

Participation in the Republic Day Parade Camp 2025 has been a transformative experience for Sri Milton Brahma. It helped him develop leadership, discipline, communication, confidence, and a strong sense of national pride and social responsibility. His achievement

Participation as “My Bharat Special Guest” at 76th Republic Day 2025 at Kartavya Path, New Delhi

Event Name : Participation as “My Bharat Special Guest” at 76th Republic Day 2025 at Kartavya Path, New Delhi

Date : 24th – 26th January 2025

Organized By : Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Govt. of India.

Venue : Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium & Kartavya Path, New Delhi

Participants : 1 NSS Volunteer.

Objective : The primary objective of participating as a “My Bharat Special Guest” at the 76th Republic Day 2025 was to provide NSS volunteers with a unique opportunity to witness the Republic Day Parade at Kartavya Path, New Delhi, and engage with national leaders, government officials, and youth volunteers from across India. The programme aimed to inspire young volunteers, promote leadership, patriotism, and national integration, and encourage active participation in social service and community development initiatives.

Detailed report:

The NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College, Kokrajhar proudly presents this detailed report on the participation of Sri Dhiraj Narzary as a “My Bharat Special Guest” during the 76th Republic Day celebrations 2025 at Kartavya Path, New Delhi. This prestigious programme, organized by the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India, is designed to honor outstanding youth volunteers and changemakers from across India, providing them with the unique opportunity to witness the Republic Day Parade and engage with national leaders, government officials, and fellow youth volunteers. Selected for his exemplary contribution to NSS and community service, Sri Dhiraj Narzary represented Kokrajhar Government College and the state of Assam with pride, commitment, and distinction.

The three-day programme commenced on 24th January 2025, with an enriching visit to some of New Delhi’s most iconic landmarks, including the Prime Minister’s Museum and the Raj Ghat memorial. These visits offered participants an insightful journey into India’s rich historical, cultural, and political heritage. At the Prime Minister’s Museum, Sri Dhiraj Narzary explored the life, leadership, and vision of India’s Prime Ministers, understanding their contribution to national development and youth empowerment. At Raj Ghat, the memorial of Mahatma Gandhi, he paid homage to the Father of the Nation, reflecting upon the values of truth, non-violence, and service to society. These experiences inspired him to further strengthen his commitment to social responsibility and active citizenship.

On 25th January 2025, Sri Dhiraj Narzary participated in a series of interactive sessions at Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, where he had the rare opportunity to engage with officials from the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, senior NSS officials, and fellow My Bharat volunteers from across the country. The sessions focused on youth leadership, social service initiatives, community development, and national integration. Volunteers shared experiences, best practices, and innovative ideas to address social challenges. Sri Dhiraj Narzary actively participated in discussions, showcasing his insights and representing the initiatives of Assam, while also learning from the experiences of youth from other states. This interaction provided him with a broader understanding of the role of young volunteers in nation-building and enhanced his vision for future community engagement.

The culmination of the programme was on 26th January 2025, when Sri Dhiraj Narzary attended the 76th Republic Day Parade at Kartavya Path as a “My Bharat Special Guest.” The parade showcased India’s military strength, cultural diversity, and the achievements of various states and government departments. Marching contingents, tableaux, cultural performances, and precision drills created a magnificent spectacle, and Sri Dhiraj Narzary witnessed the grandeur of this historic event firsthand. Representing Assam and the North Eastern Region, he felt a deep sense of pride and responsibility, acknowledging the honour of being part of a national celebration that reflects India’s unity, diversity, and democratic spirit.

The three-day programme provided Sri Dhiraj Narzary with a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to experience national-level celebrations, interact with youth leaders from across India, and gain exposure to governance, leadership, and cultural diversity. The participation strengthened his leadership skills, confidence, and sense of national pride, and served as an inspiring example for other volunteers at Kokrajhar Government College. It also reaffirmed the NSS values of discipline, service, unity, and social responsibility.

In conclusion, the NSS Unit of Kokrajhar Government College congratulates Sri Dhiraj Narzary for his outstanding participation as a “My Bharat Special Guest” at the 76th Republic Day 2025. His dedication, active engagement, and exemplary conduct during the programme brought pride to the college and the state of Assam. His experience at Kartavya Path and interactions with national leaders will continue to inspire him and fellow NSS volunteers to actively contribute to the welfare of society and the nation.

Report on Participation in Mental Health Camp at ANT Campus, Roumari Chapaguri

Date : 23rd February, 2025

Venue : Chapaguri, Rowmari

Objectives : Community Service at Rowmari Mental Health Camp organized by The Ant organization.

Outcomes : 10 students took part in community service by helping in organizing mental health camp.

No. of participants : 10 students

NSS volunteers actively contributed their dedicated service to THE ANT Organization and played a significant role in the successful organization of the Mental Health Camp held on 23 February 2025 at Rowmari, THE ANT Campus.

THE ANT Organization regularly organizes two-day Mental Health Camps to raise awareness and provide essential mental health support to people in need. Through these camps, the organization offers affordable medical consultation, counselling services, and necessary medicines, ensuring accessible mental health care for individuals from economically weaker sections of the BTR region.

The participation of NSS volunteers greatly supported the organization's mission of spreading mental health awareness, compassion, and social responsibility, thereby making a positive impact on the well-being of the local community.

Report on participation at Inaugural Ceremony of Watershed Yatra 2025

Event : Inaugural Ceremony of Watershed Yatra 2025

Date : 01st March 2025

Venue : Dholjora Village under Kokrajhar Block

Organised by : Soil Conservation Department, Kokrajhar

Participants : 16 NSS Volunteers

Objective : The objective of participating in the Inaugural Ceremony of the Watershed Yatra 2025 was to promote awareness about water conservation and watershed development, encourage active community participation, and inspire collective responsibility towards the sustainable management and protection of local water resources.

Detailed Report:

The NSS Unit actively participated in the Inaugural Ceremony of the Watershed Yatra 2025, which was held on 1st March 2025 at Village Doljhora. The programme was organised by the Soil Conservation Department, Kokrajhar with the aim of promoting awareness about water conservation, watershed development, and sustainable management of natural resources through community participation.

The inaugural programme was graced by the Chief Guest, Mrs. Masanda Pertin, IAS, District Commissioner, Kokrajhar. Her presence added dignity to the ceremony and inspired the participants to understand the importance of watershed programmes in addressing water scarcity and environmental challenges. The programme highlighted the role of administrative leadership in strengthening grassroots-level conservation initiatives.

A significant highlight of the inaugural ceremony was the Nukkad Natak performed by the NSS volunteers of Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar on the theme of water conservation. The street play effectively conveyed messages on the importance of saving water, the harmful effects of water misuse, and the need for collective responsibility in protecting water resources. The performance attracted a large gathering and created strong awareness among the villagers in an engaging and simple manner.

The response from the local community was very encouraging, as villagers actively joined the activities and appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers and the organising department. The programme strengthened the bond between the volunteers and the community, fostering a sense of shared responsibility towards environmental sustainability and watershed management.

REPORT ON MENTAL HEALTH CAMP

Occasion : Mental Health Camp

Date : 23rd March, 2025

Venue : The ANT Campus, Rowmari

Objectives : Community Service at Rowmari Mental Health Camp organized by The Ant organization.

Participants : 10 NSS Volunteers

NSS volunteers rendered voluntary service to the THE ANT Organization in conducting a Mental Health Camp on 23 March 2025 at Rowmari, The Ant Campus. The camp was organised with the objective of extending mental health care services to the local community, with special emphasis on economically weaker sections of society who have limited access to such facilities.

The initiative proved highly beneficial for poor and needy people of the Bodoland Territorial Region, as it improved access to essential mental health consultation, treatment, and medicines at an affordable cost. Such camps play a vital role in addressing mental health issues at the grassroots level and reducing social stigma associated with them.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers actively assisted in the smooth conduct of the camp by helping patients, supporting medical professionals, managing queues, and spreading awareness about mental health issues. Their dedicated involvement ensured better coordination and significantly enhanced the overall effectiveness of the programme.

The participation of NSS volunteers served as a strong boost to the mission of THE ANT Organization, which aims to spread mental health awareness and promote kindness through selfless service. The camp not only benefited the patients but also sensitized the volunteers to the importance of mental well-being and compassionate community service.

Objectives : Community Service at Rowmari Mental Health Camp organized by The Ant organization.

Outcomes : 10 students took part in community service by helping in organizing mental health camp.

No. of participants : 10 Students

On 27th April 2025, NSS volunteers extended their voluntary service to the THE ANT Organization by actively supporting a Mental Health Camp held at Rowmari, The Ant Campus. The camp was organised with the primary aim of reaching out to the local community and providing accessible mental health care services, particularly to economically disadvantaged sections of society.

This initiative played an important role in supporting poor and needy people of the Bodoland Territorial Region by improving access to essential mental health consultation, treatment, and medicines at affordable rates. Regular organisation of such camps by THE ANT Organization reflects its strong commitment to community welfare and mental well-being.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers contributed significantly to the successful conduct of the camp. They assisted patients with registration and guidance, supported medical staff during consultations, managed queues efficiently, and helped spread awareness regarding mental health and its importance.

The active involvement of NSS volunteers greatly strengthened the mission of THE ANT Organization, which focuses on spreading mental health awareness and promoting kindness through service. The experience not only benefited the patients but also sensitized the volunteers to the importance of empathy, mental well-being, and social responsibility.
