A special seminar on “U.N. Brahma’s Vision for the Upliftment of the Downtrodden Communities” was successfully organized on 31st March 2025 from 1:00 PM onwards at Kokrajhar Govt. College, Kokrajhar. The seminar was held in connection with the 3rd Observation of Students’ Day (Foraisa San), commemorating the 69th Birth Anniversary of Bodofa U.N. Brahma.

The programme was graced by Sjt. Urkhao Gwra Brahma, Hon’ble Cabinet Minister for Handloom & Textiles, Sericulture and Welfare of Bodoland, Government of Assam, as the Chief Guest. The event was also attended by distinguished guests including Sjt. Dipen Boro, President of the All Bodo Students’ Union (ABSU), and Dr. Kumud Ranjan Basumatary, Principal of Gossaigaon College, Gossaigaon.

The seminar commenced with a warm welcome and inaugural address delivered by Dr. Dimacha D. Mwchahary, Principal of Kokrajhar Govt. College. In his address, he highlighted the importance of remembering the ideals and vision of Bodofa U.N. Brahma and encouraged students to imbibe his values for building an inclusive and progressive society. The seminar session was moderated and anchored by Mr. Danswring Basumatary, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Kokrajhar Govt. College.

A total of 15 colleges participated in the seminar, including Dudhnoi College, Udalguri College, Bijni College, Salbari College, UN Brahma College, Kokrajhar, Dotma UN Brahma College, Dotma, Bodoland University, among others. Students from these institutions actively engaged in the seminar by presenting insightful and thought-provoking papers.

The presentations focused on the life, philosophy, and visionary leadership of Bodofa U.N. Brahma, with special emphasis on his relentless efforts toward the upliftment of marginalized and downtrodden communities. The discussions reflected his enduring legacy in promoting education, equality and social justice.

The seminar concluded on a meaningful note, reinforcing the relevance of U.N. Brahma's ideals in contemporary society and inspiring the younger generation to carry forward his mission for community development and empowerment.
