On the Occasion of the 70th Birth Anniversary of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma

Time: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Date: 31st March 2026

Venue: Seminar Hall, Kokrajhar University

Total Participants = 50

The Students' Day (फरायसा सान / Chatra Divas) was celebrated on 31st March 2026 at Kokrajhar University to commemorate the 70th Birth Anniversary of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma. The programme was organized by Kokrajhar University in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Kokrajhar University.

The event was formally anchored by Dr. Bichitra Narzary, Assistant Director, IQAC, Kokrajhar University. The programme commenced with a cordial welcome of the dignitaries on the dais, including Professor Ganesh Ch. Wary, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Kokrajhar University; Dr. Banabina Brahma, Registrar (i/c), Kokrajhar University; and Dr. Shickna John Wary, Academic Registrar (i/c), Kokrajhar University.

The inaugural session included the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, followed by a floral tribute to Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma as a mark of respect and remembrance of his ideals, contributions, and sacrifices as a prominent student leader. The tribute was offered collectively by the dignitaries, faculty members, and students present at the event.

Subsequently, a vibrant cultural performance of Bagurumba Dance was presented by the Kokrajhar University Students' Dance Troop, adding cultural significance and enthusiasm to the programme.

The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Banabina Brahma, Registrar (i/c), who emphasized the importance of celebrating Students' Day across educational institutions in the state and highlighted its relevance in inspiring the student community.

The programme also featured a soulful community song performed by Ms. Bhaotina Narzary, a student of the Department of Zoology. The performance reflected the essence of community values, culture, and traditions, and was well appreciated by the audience.

A keynote address on the life and contributions of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma was delivered by Professor Ganesh Ch. Wary, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor. He elaborated on Bodofa's life struggles, leadership qualities, and his significant role in community development. He also suggested that future celebrations of Students' Day should incorporate more student-centric activities such as extempore speeches, quiz competitions, and creative writing events to further engage students and honor the legacy of Bodofa.

This was followed by a lecture by Dr. Shickna John Wary, Academic Registrar (i/c), who further highlighted the contributions of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma to the socio-cultural development of the Bodo community and reflected on the progress achieved through his vision and sacrifices.

The programme concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Bichitra Narzary, who expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, participants, organizers, and attendees for their valuable contributions in making the event a success.

Overall, the celebration was conducted in a solemn and meaningful manner, successfully reflecting the ideals and legacy of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma while fostering awareness and inspiration among the students and academic community.

Programme outcome: The programme enhanced students' awareness of the life, ideals, and contributions of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma, fostering a sense of responsibility and community values. It also promoted cultural appreciation and encouraged active student participation in academic and co-curricular activities aligned with institutional and societal development.
